St. Helena Public Library

Thursday Evening Programs

October 6th, 7:00 pm

ARTIST RECEPTION & TALK Ekphrastic Expressions: Poetry Inspired by Art

BY SUZANNE BRUCE & JANET MANALO

Traditionally, ekphrastic poetry is written to a specific piece of art after the art has been completed. Poet Suzanne Bruce and artist Janet Manalo take a different, contemporary approach. Their work, Ekphrastic Expressions, embodies the ancient form of art and poetry, celebrates the union of the two but also reflects their individual, creative journeys. Join us for this reception and talk, where Suzanne and Janet will discuss their process and their second book.

Suzanne and Janet met in 2002 and began their collaborative adventures in 2005. Their first book Voices Beyond the Canvas was published in 2007. Their recently published second book, Her Visions Her Voices, identifies with the dynamic power of women's insights.

October 20th, 7:00 pm

Pros & Cons of the Ballot Propositions 2016 PRESENTED BY THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF NAPA COUNTY

November's ballot contains 17 California propositions, plus county and local measures. To help you make informed decisions about them before voting, members of the League of Women Voters of Napa County will give a lively educational presentation. Handouts will be provided.

October 13th, 7:00 pm

Trace Your Roots: Genealogical Research in the Napa Valley

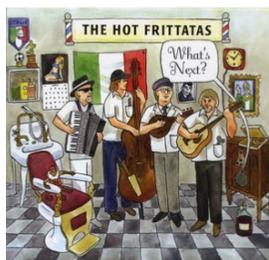

PRESENTED BY NAPA VALLEY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Are you interested in family history? Learn the basics of genealogical research at this talk, presented by Mary Herzog of the Napa Valley Genealogical Society. Herzog will discuss the different resources available to locals in the valley, and how easy it is to uncover family history. The Genealogical Society is located at 1701 Menlo Avenue in Napa. Learn more about the Napa Valley Genealogical Society at:

October 27th, 7:00 pm

CELEBRATE ITALIAN HERITAGE MONTH! Hot Frittatas in Concert

The Hot Frittatas specialize in romantic Italian cafe music. No, not your ordinary cup of cappuccino! This lively ensemble of Gus Garelick on fiddle and mandolin, Don Coffin on guitar, Dennis Hadley on accordion, and Gail Sharpsteen on violincello have been together for nearly twenty years. This band will make you want to dance and fall in love . . . and maybe do both at the same time. As noted by the Santa Rosa Press Democrat: "You can almost taste the cappuccino." Make it a double!

All programs are supported by Friends & Foundation, St. Helena Public Library.

The Cold War: Lectures & Films

TUESDAYS, 5:00-6:30 PM

The Bear & the Eagle: A Half Century of Cold War

Presented by Historian Jay Greene

Jay Greene will describe the major events of the period and explore answers to the “explosive” question we all want answered: How did we avoid entering a Hot War with the inevitable exchange of nuclear weapons that could have resulted in a radioactive return to the Dark Ages? Jay Greene is a respected historian and lecturer who lives in St. Helena.

October 4th: Détente? 1973–1980

October 18th: The Ice Breaks: 1981–1991

MONDAYS, 3:00-5:00 PM

Cold War Film Series

Jay Greene has recommended films that complement his lectures on the Cold War. Films will have a short introduction by Robyn Orsini, and will be followed by discussion and Q&A. The October films are scheduled as follows:

October 3rd: Dr. Strangelove (1950)

October 17th: Bridge of Spies (2015)

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1ST, 5:00-6:30 PM

The Power of Emotional Intelligence

What are emotions and what do they tell us?

How does emotional awareness keep us safe?

What level of emotional intelligence do we need from our political leaders?

These questions and more will be addressed in a lecture presented by Marielle Coeytaux.

October 16th to 22nd: National Friends of Libraries Week

Friends of Libraries groups have their very own national week of celebration! This week is to promote and raise awareness of these organizations. This is also an excellent opportunity to recognize and thank our Friends & Foundation for their help and support of St. Helena Public Library. The St. Helena City Council will honor our Friends & Foundation with a proclamation on October 11th at 6:00 pm.

TUESDAYS AT 10:30 AM

Coffee & Culture: A Morning Docu-Series

In October we will show episodes from the James Beard Award winning series “The Mind of a Chef.” Come to the library to watch an hour and enjoy a cup of coffee!

October 4th: “Winter” & “Spring”

October 11th: “Creation” & “France”

October 18th: “Traditions” & “Locality”

October 25th: “Documentation” & “Fäviken”

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 2ND, 4:00-6:00 PM

Día de los Muertos-Drop-in Crafts

Join us for traditional Día de los Muertos crafts in the Children’s Room. We will be making nichos, sugar skulls, and much more!

¡Únete a nosotros en el Salón de los Niños para celebrar el Día de los Muertos! ¡Tendremos mucha diversión creando nichos, calaveritas de azúcar, y mucho más!

Tuesday, October 25th, 3:00-6:00 pm:
Imagination Station with Nimbus Arts

Help create a glass mosaic dragon for a public art installation; no experience needed!

PRÓXIMOS PROGRAMAS

Jueves a las 6:00 pm
Club de conversacion en inglés

Acompáñenos en este club para practicar el escuchar y conversar en inglés. Este club de conversación tiene una duración de 1 hora y da la bienvenida a todos los niveles. Facilitadores promoverán conversaciones en inglés y ayudarán a los participantes a aprender pronunciación y nuevas palabras con el objetivo de ampliar el vocabulario. Este club de conversación no es una clase formal. Hay varias organizaciones en St. Helena que ofrecen clases formales para aprender inglés. Si desea conocer más sobre clases locales de inglés llame al UpValley Family Center en St. Helena al 707-963-1919 y al Napa Valley College Upper Campus al 707 967-2900.

Todos los programas son gratuitos al público gracias a Friends & Foundation, St. Helena Public Library.
